ACKNOWLEDGEMENT:

I, _____, the Donor, fully understand and agree that my donation will follow the terms and conditions established in the "City of Cranbrook Commemorative Policy for Parks and Open Spaces #90-202". These include but are not limited to the following items:

- 1) The cost of the bench will be borne by the Donor as per the price set by the City of Cranbrook. The Public Works Department will install and maintain the structure for a period of 15 (fifteen) years. After 15 (fifteen) years, the Donor has the option to renew at the current replacement cost. If the Donor does not wish to renew, the structure will remain the property of the City of Cranbrook, and may be refurbished and offered to another Donor.
- 2) If the Donor chooses not to renew, staff will make all reasonable attempts to return the plaque. It is recommended the Donor update their mailing address and contact info if it changes over the period of the donation.
- 3) A 2.125" x 5.875" inch plaque is included with a bench donation. The Donor is responsible to sign off a final proof prior to production of the plaque. The Donor has the option to decline having a plaque, in which case the donation amount is reduced.
- 4) Upon receipt of this document, staff will contact a donor to arrange a site visit and bench location confirmation. Final decision on the placement of the bench will be determined by the Director of Leisure Services.
- 5) The donation of the bench in no way constitutes ownership of the bench by the donor, nor the land upon which it is situated, or the surrounding lands. The City cannot guarantee that the bench will remain at the designated site indefinitely.

I further understand that payment to the City of Cranbrook must be made in full and this Acknowledgement must be signed prior to the City proceeding with arrangements to have the donation installed. Bench delivery and installation can take up to 12 (twelve) weeks from the time of ordering. Upon receipt of this signed Application and Agreement, Leisure Services will return a fully executed Agreement to you.
