Our Budget

Cranbrook is a diverse community with complete urban services and economy that enjoys high standard of municipal programs, aimed at maintaining and improving quality of life for all residents.

Our budget allows the City of Cranbrook to maintain the levels of services of those municipal programs and realize strategic goals such as housing-affordability, economic-growth, community-vibrancy, improved infrastructure, environmental sustainability, support of recreation, culture and the arts, as well as social responsibility by overseeing an annual budget of $76 million.

2016 was an exciting year for the City of Cranbrook for many reasons. In April, new Chief Administrative Officer, David Kim, was appointed, who brings collaborative and innovative leadership, with strong emphasis on teamwork and outcome. A new collaborative development approval process was launched to improve quality and time, and facilitate the growth and change of our community through our approval services. Continued investment in the local economy and improving civic pride have been seen through such 2016 projects such as the 11th Avenue reconstruction, dam rehabilitation work at Idlewild Park, and new year-round washrooms at Rotary Park. In addition, significant work has continued in the area of asset management, which enables the City to make sound infrastructure replacement decisions.

The City's budget process has taken on a new and strategic direction that focuses on aligning priorities among citizens, council and the administration, maximizing the benefits and values for dollars we spend, and innovation through management of resources and risks. Strategic initiatives and investments also have been envisioned, that will set our community up for a long term sustainability, accommodating growth in our local economy; suggesting solutions to our aging infrastructure; moving towards technology & innovation-based operation; providing ways to better-connect the City operation with our citizens, and investing in the City staff for capacity building and quality service.

All departments participated in developing the financial plan and coordinated across the corporation using their accumulated experience. Our priorities are ranked based on relative importance of the corporate wide priorities; and ability to bundle up departmental-priorities together for synergy. This effort allowed individual departments to support not only their departmental priorities but also the corporate priorities. Finally, these priorities were examined against Council's priorities and alignments were made to ensure that the objectives laid out by Council were met.

Organization Structure

During 2016, the City of Cranbrook underwent restructuring to better adapt to emerging needs of infrastructure delivery and to streamline approvals.

There are nine business portfolios within the City, each of which reports to the Chief Administrative Officer:

- Corporate Services
- Office of Innovation and Collaboration
- Finance and Computer Services
- Public Works
- Leisure Services
- Infrastructure Planning and Delivery
- Fire and Emergency Services
- Airport
- RCMP (through contract)

The nine portfolios deliver a broad group of services, including:

- Infrastructure Planning, Maintenance, and Delivery
- Development Approvals and Planning
- Parks, Recreation and Culture
- Environmental Protection
- Fire Protection
- Policing
- Legislative and Enforcement
- Corporate Administration
- Public Transit
- Financial Planning and Accounting
- Water and Sewer
- Solid Waste Management
- Airport
- Cemetery Operations

Financial Plan Process

The financial plan process began in the fall of 2016 with collaboration across the corporation drawing on individual departments' accumulated experience and technical skill sets. The City developed a new budget planning process, including guidelines and schedule. Each department developed individual draft capital and operating plans that ranked projects by importance within that department. These departmental priorities were ranked based on relative importance, ability to bundle projects for synergy, and alignment with Council's sustainability objectives. As a result, a corporate-wide priority list was developed, on which the 2017 to 2021 Five Year Financial Plan was based.

City of Cranbrook
Five Year Financial Plan Summary
2017 - 2021

An all-day, public budget meeting was held on January 18, 2017. During the meeting each department made a presentation that included their 2016 highlights as well as their 2017 work plan and 2017-2021 capital projects. Council reviewed the budget information and directed staff to make adjustments where they felt better alignment with their objectives could be achieved.

The Proposed Five Year Financial Plan (2017 – 2021) Summary has been developed to provide the public with an opportunity to examine the results of the budget process. The public is invited to submit their comments to Council, in writing, by the end of the 2 week consultation period.

During February and March, in open Council meetings, the 2017 to 2021 Five Year Financial Plan Bylaw will be brought before City Council for three readings and adoption. In May, the 2017 Cranbrook Tax Rates Bylaw will be presented to Council for consideration.

Budget

Each year, budget planning starts with a review of current and projected levels of city services. Adjustments are made for inflation or changes to contractual obligations. Departments review actual costs against budgets to determine if there are areas that require additional resources or costs can be reduced or eliminated while providing service levels.

In particular, the budget planning focuses on incremental changes from the previous year's operations. These changes might include increases due to new or expanded programs, decreases resulting from reduced or eliminated services, non-controllable cost increases, salary and employment benefit increases related to Collective Agreements and the removal or addition of one-time or recurring revenues and expenditures from the preceding year.

Property Taxes

Service Levels

The majority of the City's revenue is obtained through property taxes. When preparing the Budget, the City determines the amount of revenue required to provide all the desired municipal services. Staff then determines the amount of revenue the City can expect to receive from non-property tax sources such as fees and charges, federal and provincial government grants, etc. The difference between the budgeted expenditures and the other revenue represents the amount of property tax revenue the City must collect to provide the services to the levels prescribed by Council. When the cost of providing an existing service increases (e.g. through inflation, changes in statutory requirements or product cost increases), the City must either raise more revenue or reduce the level of service.

The Tax Rate

The City determines the “tax rate” (a charge per $1,000 of assessed property value) by dividing the sum of the assessed property values in the City by the amount of property tax revenue that must be collected. The “tax rate” is simply a means of determining how much each individual property owner must pay to receive the package of services provided by the City. The rationale for this approach is that owners of larger properties pay more than owners of smaller properties, or that individuals owning larger homes, in general, have an ability to pay more than those in lesser valued properties. Consequently, the City calculates the tax rate each year based on the revenue the City must collect and the assessed values of all the properties in the City at that time. If the amount of property taxes required by the City increases and assessed values don't change, or they drop, the tax rate will go up. If assessed values go up, property tax rates may stay the same or increase marginally. The increase to the tax rate will depend on how much assessed values go up relative to how much more the City needed to collect in taxation revenue.

Taxation Levels

The 2017 to 2021 Five Year Financial Plan includes budgeted property tax revenues for general municipal purposes as follows:

Year	Taxation Revenue (Levy)
2017	$ 25,295,317
2018	$ 26,502,856
2019	$ 27,573,366
2020	$ 29,048,474
2021	$ 29,684,494

The proposed increase to the general property tax levy, after non-market change (new construction) of $100,000 is 1.98% in 2017 and 3.38% in 2018.

The Dedicated Road Improvement Tax that was introduced in 2010 will continue through all five years of the Financial Plan, meaning that an additional 1% property tax will be assessed annually and set aside for road work only. Thus, the total projected general municipal property tax increase for 2017 is 2.98% (4.38% in 2018). The 1% Dedicated Road Improvement Tax will fund over $11 million of the $33.7 million in capital road projects planned for 2017 through 2021.

Increase in General Municipal Property Taxes

The 2017 average general municipal property tax increase (excluding school and other non-City taxes) for residential taxpayers is projected to be 1.98% or about $14.69 per $100,000 of assessed value, unless City Council chooses to change the distribution of property taxes. In 2017, the 1% Dedicated Road Improvement Tax equates to about $7.42 per $100,000 of assessed value. The combined 2017 general municipal property tax increase for a residential property owner is 2.98% or $22.11 per $100,000 of assessed value.

The average assessed value for a residential property in Cranbrook is $270,000 ($269,000 in 2016). The projected municipal taxes for an average home will be about $2,063, or $5.65 per day, before the Provincial Home Owner Grant.

CITY TAXES: $5.65 per Day (for an average residential property assessed at $270,000)

Eligible residential property owners can apply for an annual home owner grant which is deducted from their total tax bill. The grant amounts are $770 – basic; $1,045 – senior/disability.

Distribution of Property Taxes

As per Section 165(3.1) of the Community Charter, the distribution of general municipal property taxes among the classes is estimated to be (based on the 2016 distribution):

Class		2017
01	Residential	1.00
02	Utilities	6.54
05	Light Industry	2.72
06	Business and other	2.62
