Leisure Services

Access Card Program

For Recreational Assistance

April 2015

(implemented January 2010)

What is the Leisure Access Program?

The Leisure Access Program is for Cranbrook residents who live within city limits whose limited income may prevent them from participating in basic recreation services.

Applicants are screened to verify that residents with low income may receive access to the program and the reduced rates it offers.

Low income status is determined as per the 2012 National Council of Welfare low income figures. See chart below.

Low Income Eligibility Chart

Size of Family Unit	Maximum Income
1 person	$23,298
2 persons	$29,004
3 persons	$35,657
4 persons	$43,292
5 persons	$49,102
6 persons	$55,378
7 persons	$61,656
More than 7 persons, for each additional person add $5,838

If you are not eligible for the Leisure Access Program, check the pool schedule for Free Family Swims.

How do I get a Leisure Access Pass?

1. Applications are available at 5 adjudicating agencies.

Please bring with you one of the following:

- * MHSD Release of Personal Information confirming current eligibility for Employment and Income Assistance or Persons with Persistent Multiple Barriers or Persons with Disabilities.
- * CPPD standard benefit letter from Service Canada.
- * Verification from an adjudicator to confirm your need based on income.

The adjudicator must verify that the situation of applicant is known, their total family income is below the Low Income Chart rate and provide the required information should a review of the application be necessary.

2. The Adjudicator will fax the completed application to Cranbrook Leisure Services 250-489-6154.
3. After step 2 is complete, you can visit Leisure Services (located at Western Financial Place) with your proof of city residency to become registered. Residency is approved by City staff with Utility Bill or tenancy agreement and, proof of Identification (BC Driver's License, passport, or BC Photo ID).
4. Once the above steps are complete, you can begin to enjoy the benefits of your LAP immediately. Benefits are good for one year and then individuals must reapply.
